Mission Statement:
The mission of the Chaplaincy Program at Greensboro Urban Ministry is to offer a ministry of presence, pastoral counseling, volunteer service, prayer and worship, teaching, referral, and liaison with local faith communities.

Internship Title: Chaplain Intern

Responsibilities/Projects:

- Serve as an advocate with Bread For The World
  1. Help create an awareness of hunger in the community(s)
  2. Speak at Church functions about hunger awareness.

- Help discover ways to set up and participate in food drives
  1. Assist the food bank in creating an awareness of food drives and solicit food donations
  2. Help create new food drives.

- Learn the various functions of a homeless shelter(s)
  1. How churches and community resources work together to eliminate poverty
  2. The role of spirituality in the context of poverty which help create holistic ministry.

Qualifications:
- Desire to work with people, especially the homeless population
- Acquire good listening skills
- No language requirement (Good to have).

Working Conditions:
- Office Space (Available)
- Need a Lap Top
- Provide own transportation and housing

On-site Supervisor/Mentor:
- Rev. Frank Dew, Director of Chaplaincy
  305 West Lee Street
  Greensboro, NC 27406
  fdew@guministry.org
  336 553-2651 Ext. 327

Additional Contact:
- Rev. Helen McLaughlin, Staff Chaplain
  mclaughlin@guministry.org
  336 553-2650 Ext. 326

Edited: November 2012
Mentorship Plan:
- Give an overview of GUM programs to enable the intern to acquire an emersion experience
- The intern will be guided by a team of chaplains with the support of other programs staff as needed
- We will have weekly meetings with the intern(s) and one-on-one meetings scheduled as needed.

Preparation:
- How Much Is Enough by: Art Simon
- Bread.org

Does the intern need to provide her own transportation?
- Encouraged, but not required

Rev. Frank Dew,
Director of Chaplaincy
Greensboro Urban Ministry